School News for Oct. 19-26, 2016

Dear Annunciation Families,

- Winter uniforms begin Oct. 26! Students will no longer be permitted to wear shorts during winter uniforms- pants or sweatpants are required instead! Skirts and jumpers are permitted all year long.
- We are exploring the idea of sending our Annunciation school bus on morning and afternoon trips to pick up students who live on Base. Currently, 4 families have responded. If this would benefit your family, please email Mrs. Bragg at principal@acsnc.net
- Are you a whiz at marketing events? Your help is needed to market and advertise our Scroogefest Art and Craft Fair! Please email Mrs. Bragg or our ASPA president at aspa@acsnc.net to volunteer!
- Our BoxTops goal for the month will be wrapping up next week – don't forget to send yours!
- Church collection envelopes are in your family blue folder this week. These envelopes will be collected during our school Mass on Friday.
- Mrs. Coty Jackson's Famous Creole Corn and Crab Bisque kits are still for sale! Purchase a kit with one bag of frozen bisque and one can of crab for $20 from our school office.
- Seventh grade students are leading a "Donations for Flood Victims" toiletry drive through Friday of this week. Please send in your donations of toiletries and other items listed in their flyer!

Every week, I will provide you with an excerpt from the books "50 Things Every Young Lady/Gentleman Should Know", by Kay West and John Bridges: #10: "Listening to and talking to adults: A gentleman or lady looks adults in the eye when he is talking to them. A gentleman or lady doesn't try to carry on a conversation while he is staring at a television set or computer screen."
